

Short Story

Basing on the picture, the student should imagine a story behind the picture and write about it.

Description:

- (Introduction) First, the student should describe a picture and present the general idea of the picture.
- (Body) Second, the student should write the development of the story. This is where the story takes place.
- (Conclusion) Last but not the least, the student should write the conclusion. This is where the students how the moral of the story and offer pieces of advice.

Note: The story does not need to be long. However, it must include at least three paragraphs: Introduction, Body and Conclusion.